Dear Sir:

This is to notify you that we received your letter of August 10, 1988 regarding the Coakley land fill site in Hampton, N.H.

We are a venture capital company located in Boston. Our business consists of raising and investing capital and does not generate hazardous waste of any kind, nor have we ever had business dealings with the site in question. Per our telephone conversation, it appears that there has been a mistake in listing our company as a user of the site.

This letter will constitute our reply to your request unless we are notified that other information is required.

Sincerely,

Thomas H. Lauer
Chief Financial Officer
